Decisive Vote Indicates that Coal Diggers Have No Intention of Abandoning the Fight—Hoarser Vote Resulted in 3 to 1 Ballot Against

Fernie, B. C., Aug. 11.—The vote taken last night by Gladstone union upon the proposition to go to work upon the findings of the Gordon report resulted in 583 against to 105 for accepting.

The long session of the day was taken up with a most strenuous discussion of whether a vote be taken or not. The district and international officials contended for a ballot and finally overcame the opposition and the vote as above recorded resulted. The vote at Hosmer resulted in a three to one ballot against, and the Michel local is voting today. These results disposes of the proposition as presented to the men, and the deadlock is again on.

Medicine Hat Liberals

Monroe Buchanan

Editor of the Herald to Contest Seat Against McGrath—Four Legislative Bye-Elections May Follow Federal Contest

Lethbridge, Aug. 11.—Last evening the Liberals of the federal constituency of Medicine Hat nominated W. A. Buchanan, M.P.P., editor and proprietor of the Lethbridge Herald, to contest the constituency in the forthcoming elections in opposition to G. A. McGrath, the retiring member. Mr. Buchanan is representative of Lethbridge city, in the provincial legislature. Should he be successful in the election, a bye-election in Lethbridge city for the local house will be brought on this fall.

Mr. Buchanan's nomination was unanimous and was greeted with much enthusiasm. He will make a strong fight for the recovery of the constituency which was won by G. A. McGrath on an independent platform last election. Mr. Buchanan, who is a member of the Conservative party, has been on almost every issue that has been brought on in the house of commons at Ottawa.

Municipal Meeting Tonight Promises Some Warmth

McKinley Forces Abandon Bouillon Issue and Take Up Gas Question in Search of Stronger Position

What promises to be the warmest meeting of the Bouillon-McKinley campaign will take place this evening at the separate school hall on Third street when both camps will be in force, and prepared for emergencies. The meeting of Tuesday evening and the meeting of last evening have shown the forces to be stirred up to an extent that some real and genuine platform fighting is promised. It is not always the public to learn both sides of political issues presented from the same platform during one evening. But such opportunities are being presented this week. The meetings of last evening at the separate school hall and tomorrow evening at Norwood will be the last and nothing will be possible. The best in both camps will be put forward. The meeting in Norwood tomorrow evening is under the same auspices but Mr. McKinley intends to be present.

After the Tuesday night meeting the McKinley forces were thoroughly convinced that the Bouillon issue was a reef upon which they were bound to wrecked helplessly unless the issues were submerged completely. Hence poor old Bouillon is followed by no one at the separate school hall. Aside from exclaiming from the platform that Bouillon is an impossibility, the McKinley forces will be busy through the public prints and by the (therefore) Bouillon faction. And the Bouillon forces have presented the argument

BASE COWARDICE COSTS NAVIGATORS PAPERS FOR LIFE

Wreck Commissioner Denies Judgment in Case of Murray Bay Wreck

Captain Hearn Brave But Guilty of Neglect

Captain Young and O'Brien Severely De-nounced and Suspended from List of Navigators

Quebec, Aug. 11.—Capt. Denys, Dominion wreck commissioner rendered judgment this afternoon on the recent collision between the steamer, McArthur and General Wolfe in which the latter was sunk off Murray Bay.

"The court found that while commends the seamanship action of Capt. Hearn, in directing the work of rescue following the collision, he should, in so far as perceiving the erratic course of General Wolfe, have reduced the speed of his vessel and kept full speed, and although he issued the order it was too late to prove effective. In his tardiness in this respect he was guilty of neglect and the court recommended Capt. Hearn and to remind him that it is one of his previous excellent record and commendable action following the collision that he is not more severely dealt with."

Capt. Young and First Officer O'Brien were found guilty of base cowardice and their action in clinging to safety and leaving to perish if necessary, those entrusted to their care cannot be allowed to go unpunished. Capt. Young and O'Brien are unworthy to be numbered among mariners whose lives have been saved and therefore they will be struck from the list, their certificates being hereby cancelled forever."

The fourth bye-election this fall will be in the constituency of Medicine Hat, the vacancy created by the death this spring of G. A. McGrath, who was the seat in a bye election last year, in Medicine Hat, W. A. Buchanan, and in Macleod, Dr. Warnock, M.P.P., whose name will be brought before the liberal convention today in Macleod, and who is sure of nomination by unanimous vote, are seeking to enter the field.

LORD'S VETO FIGHT BECOMES MATTER OF RECORDED HISTORY

Cold and Formal Phrases of Official Message Convey Intelligence of Peers' Capitulation, Putting Finis to Greatest Political Fight in British History

London, Aug. 11.—The official report of proceedings at yesterday's session of the house of commons issued today makes the announcement in formal official terms that the message has been received from the house of lords stating that they will not insist on amendments to the parliamentary bill to which the house of commons had disagreed and have agreed to the consequential amendment to bill by the house of commons.

Thus will be recorded in the documents of parliament the greatest victory achieved by a liberal prime minister in a century, for although unanimous votes passed the bill in the upper chamber last night, history will give credit to Premier Asquith's astute and cautious policy. The victory was all the greater as it was achieved with a complete majority in the house of commons of which government whips had the control. It is a radical change in the constitution and the reform of the house of lords as outlined in Lord Lansdowne's bill.

Irish leaders are confident that the way is open to home rule and that the bill will be passed in the near future. The bill will be passed in the near future. The bill will be passed in the near future. The bill will be passed in the near future.

CALIFORNIA MILLER WANTS HARD WHEAT

Proposes to Ship via Vancouver and the Coast to Southern Mills

Vancouver, B. C., Aug. 11.—Plans for the purchase of four million bushels of soft wheat for the purpose of shipping to California and one in the state of Paso, Texas.

Mr. W. E. Keller, president of the company, is in Vancouver in connection with the matter. Yesterday he interviewed the G. P. H. agents and they gave out a statement in which he said that the plans of his company are to a large extent contingent upon the question of the rate of freight on the prairies to Vancouver and the adoption of reciprocity between Canada and the United States.

Mr. Keller said that he is planning to ship the Canadian wheat from Vancouver to San Francisco and San Pedro, whence it will be distributed to the companies' mills in California and one in the state of Paso, Texas.

A portion of the grain would be shipped to the soft American grains now used for grade flour.

THE DEMAND FOR ENGLISH AROUSING GERMAN EDUCATORS

They Say Elimination of Greek in Schools Will Increase an Already Noticeable Intellectual Deficiency

(International News Cable)
Berlin, Aug. 10.—German education is going through a era of reform at a high pressure. The first decade of the present century brought the opening of public schools for girls, whereby they were enabled to rise to the highest academic training. This extension of education was attended by several internal reforms, which pay due regard to the exigencies and changed aspects of modern life. The most stress was laid on physical training, the sciences and the teaching of modern languages, with the spirit of usefulness and self-reliance in the English system of self-administration is being adapted to the peculiar character of the German schools.

Both masters and pupils had just-ified down to work under those altered conditions when rumors began to circulate that another change is about to be made in the internal scheme of national education, a change many respects symptomatic of the trend of popular feeling. Greek, which at hitherto been the pride of the German curriculum, is no longer obligatory, and English is to take its place.

The advocates of classical training are exerting themselves to the utmost to prevent the planned reform from being carried into effect. They point out that the marked falling off which has already been noticed in the intellectual readiness of students will go on increasing if Greek, the touchstone of ability, has to give way to such an unimpressive language as English. The enormous value of which is by them set down at a very low rate. Moreover, they contend that the German methods of instruction will fall short of attaining that higher level of education for which they have so laboriously sought, if a step is not put to unsettling subjects that require careful application.

On the other hand, the very influential supporters of English contend that the causes have for years been at WORK TO LOWER THE INTELLECTUAL STANDARD AND TO MULTIPLY BEYOND PRECEDENT, THE CANDIDATES FOR OFFICIAL AND OTHER POSITS, AND THIS PROCESS WILL CAUSE THE GERMAN TO BE RETAINED OR STRUCK OUT OF THE COURTESY ALTOGETHER.

WHILE MASTERS ARE AWAY
THE DOMESTICS MUST EAT
Berlin Police Say That Men Servants
Must Have 35 Cents Day and Maid
Servants 50 Cents Day to Eat On

(International News Cable)

Berlin, Aug. 10.—Another instance of the way in which the Berlin police interest themselves in every detail of the private life of the city's inhabitants is afforded by a decree just issued by Herr von Jazow, the police president, which arbitrarily fixes the sum per day which is to be allowed for food to domestic servants during their employers' absence in summer.

The terms "domestic servant" includes everything, from the maid-of-all-work of the small household to the butler with all his retinue of lesser lights, in the house of the rich, and the decree lays down that each man servant shall receive a daily allowance of 35 cents and each maid servant 30 cents for food during the whole time of their employers' absence.

The new police regulation has been greeted with more delight by the servants than by their employers, especially among the middle-classes, where the domestic servant problem in Germany is already acute enough.

Although the amount of the daily allowance cannot be considered as excessive in relation to the present prices of food, when it is remembered that the ordinary wage, which in Germany is anything from $7.50 per month upwards for the average domestic servant, has also to be paid during the employers' absence, it will be seen that the new regulation will mean a considerable item in the reckoning of the middle-class family abode.

UNCLE SAM LEADS IN AERIAL PLANS

WAR BUDGET CONTAINS IMPORT-ANT APPROPRIATION FOR FLIGHT OF FLIERS

(International News Service)

Washington, Aug. 9.—Within another year the United States will take the lead in aerial defense among the nations of the world. There is now in the military budget for the next appropriate bill an item for $125,000,000 which will purchase twenty or more heavy-torpedo machines, and with the threat that the country will be in a more formidable position, so far as the air is concerned, than any nation in the world.

Every modern military expert now agrees that much of the fighting of the future is to take place in the air. It is, war will be carried on above the earth, just as it is now carried on below the surface of the sea. The United States army, wants more aeroplanes and more men trained to operate them. Not only will the aeroplanes be valuable for scouting and observation work, but they will be used to drop projectiles and explosives on hostile armies and navies. The fact is, the use of which aeroplanes may be put are not fully calculated yet. It may be that they will revolutionize modern warfare.

However that may be, the army is preparing to keep ahead of the times if possible in the employment of aeroplanes for both offensive and defensive purposes. Congress will be asked to co-operate, and the fact is, the army believes that the lawmakers will vote all the money needed.

Twenty Airships in a Year.

General James Allen, chief of the army signal corps is quoted as saying that the army will have twenty airships in a year. He has forty officers, giving the United States a lead in aerial strength. At the present rate of progress this prediction will undoubtedly be borne out.

Since April four aeroplanes have been purchased by the signal corps—two Wrights, one Curtiss and one Curtiss machine. Two of these now at College Park, Md., the airship school of the army, one at Fort Belvoir, Texas, supplanting the 1909 Wright model which has just been presented to the National Museum, and the Burgess-Wright machine is now on its way to College Park.

Air War Area Seizes.

It is a severely of airships, and not aeroplanes that is bolstering the army just now. The number of graduates aviators of the signal corps can still be counted on the fingers. Lieutenants Poulsen, Beck, Milling, Arnold, Kirlind, and Kennedy as a student comprise the entire list.

Officers are being trained fast, and it is likely that the army will have from forty to fifty expert aviators by the time the appropriation for the purchase of more machines is called for.

Builders Hustle for Contracts.

There is a sharp bidding among the various aeroplane manufacturers for the government's business. Each manufacturer understands that it is a big recommendation for the future to have the government as a patron. Therefore all the companies are working hard to get the government contracts.

The Wright company has the advantage in army circles. These brothers were the first successful flyers of this type of machine, and their demonstration tests at Fort Meyer two years ago have given them a position that is hard to compete with.

Curtis's Favorite.

The Curtiss machine has a strong following in the signal corps because of the brilliant exploits of Curtiss and his aviators in the past, and on account of the results they have gained in their experiments with the hydro-aeroplane at Hammontport, N.Y.

It has already been agreed among aviators that the hydro-aeroplane is more useful in the navy than in the army. Professor A. P. Zahm, the aviation expert of this city, recently went to Hammontport to watch the work of the hydro-aeroplane and was delighted with it. He insisted along with other experts, however, that this type of machine will do better work on naval vessels than on land.

Wright's Superior Control.

The control system of the Burgess-Wright machines has gained many advocates for it, and the prediction is made that in this end the army will purchase more machines of this type than any other. The work of Harry N. Arnold in his long flight from Boston to Washington, and his flights in this city, with the Burgess-Wright machine have been highly praised by the officers of the signal corps.

Foreigners in the Bidding.

It has developed too, that the bidding for the government contracts is not confined to the United States, but that the manufacturers in foreign countries are offering their products to this country, and are guaranteeing some remarkable results. The Farman concern of France has announced its intention of establishing a manufacturing plant in the United States, and it will select a site somewhere on the Atlantic coast. Similar as it may seem, the signal corps has not shown the slightest interest in the monoplane. There is no interest in the monoplane manufacturer in the United States, and besides this type of machine is regarded as far less safe than the biplane.

The only real advantage which the monoplane has is that it develops more speed in most cases than the biplane. It is more dangerous of operation and has therefore been left out of the calculations of the army.

Inasmuch as there has been no real year since the flying machine has been used as a part of the United States' use of it in war has not been demonstrated. Yet the military experts are convinced that this weapon will be an important element in the fighting of the future. The machines are capable of great altitude and speed, and that fact makes them a difficult target.

PROTESTANTS NOT IN ANY DANGER

DO THINKS T. P. O'DONNOR, WHO
SEE NO MENACE TO THE MI-NORITY IN HOME RULE

(Globe Press Cable)

(By Timothy P. O'Donnor.)

Dublin, Aug. 11.—Among other alleged objections to Home Rule, one hears a good deal of "the fear that the Protestant minority would be exposed to persecution." I have in hand with me that goes that other terror—that the industrial and wealthy north will suffer injuries in matters of taxation." In his book, "The Lesquo of Past Years," just published, Lord Dunsany faces both these objections squarely, and gives the following answer:

Fair Play Guaranteed.

"Every body of honest contractors the assumption of religious or secular intolerance on the part of the Catholic minority. But let that pass. I have the fears for the majority to be grounded; but, that it may, they can be effectively dispelled. The minority cannot be guaranteed exceptional treatment founded on religious, or class ascendancy, and they might be ashamed to demand it; but they can be guaranteed equality, and fair play, and for more than that they have no right to ask."

A book published by the Irish Press Agency under the title "Religious Intolerance under Home Rule" gives, in the form of letters to the editor, the opinions of many leading Irish Protestants on this matter, and very effectively shows that Lord Dunsany has good reason for his statement.

Protestants Have Nothing to Fear.

Mr. William Abraham, an Irish Congregationalist, and for over a quarter of a century a parliamentary member for the Harbor division of Dublin, writes: "26, Ashmountroad."

"I have no lane, N. My personal experience speaks for itself. Living in the city of Limerick, where no Catholics are in an insignificant minority, I was elected every year by my Catholic fellow-citizens, chairman of the Board of Guardians, and afterwards as M. P. for West Limerick. In 1910, at the request of my Parliamentary colleagues, I stood as a candidate for the Harbor division of the Irish metropolis. My opponent was a Nationalist, and I was elected by a majority of 5,414. The fact is, that as a Protestant, candidate in Ireland is straight on the political issue, as Protestantism, far from being a disadvantage, is a positive asset. Religious intolerance is foreign to the nature of Irish citizenship."

Chorus of Publicists.

The same burden is taken up by Irish magistrates, merchants, barristers, lawyers, journalists, educationalists, ministers, farmers, all Protestants add all are ready to disprove the allegations which the Tories so generously put both on their behalf.

Mr. Richard M. Harrington, J.P., one of the latest employers of agricultural labor in county Wicklow, declares: "I have no fear of religious intolerance under Home Rule, and have every confidence in the good sense of my Catholic neighbors and fellow-countrymen."

Sir Charles Brett, a prominent Belfast solicitor; Professor Griffith, Professor of Pathology in the National University of Ireland; Dr. Charles Foran, J.P., a medical practitioner in Galway for over forty years; Mr. William Gibson, J.P., a magistrate and farmer of county Down, send the same message of practically word for word.

Prof. Barrett's Testimony.

Here is the testimony of Professor W. P. Barrett, J.P., F.R.S.: "During the years I have lived in Dublin I have mixed with all classes and creeds and all sorts and conditions of Irishmen, have travelled and lectured in various parts of the country, and have never experienced any intolerance on the part of Roman Catholics. Nowhere have I met with a more cordial welcome and greater hospitality than in Cork and in the south-west of Ireland, where the Protestants are in a small minority, and where they are at the fears of their co-religionists in Ulster."

Professor Barrett goes so far as to say that any "intolerance" that exists has a decidedly Orange hue—it springs from the Protestants themselves. "It is, however," he concludes, "aazing to find so many excellent Nonconformists throughout Ireland still wedded to a belief in the bogies and shillabobs of the Tory creed." Mr. J. Annet Bryce, M.P., begins his letter by stating that he "may claim to know something of Ireland," for his "father lived more than half his life there." "His grandfather and uncle were Presbyterian ministers in Ulster."

"As a member of the Budget committee, I had occasion to visit many districts of the west and north-west, where the population is mainly Catholic. I do not believe that under home rule there would be the slightest danger of intolerance on the part of the Catholics towards Protestants in the athletic parts of Ireland. So far from home rule meaning home rule, my belief is that under home rule, the influence of the clergy in political matters will continue to decline, and that very ground upon which the Tories have based their lukewarm or hostile towards home rule."

Religious Minority Is Secure

In all close on a hundred leading Irish Protestants have committed themselves, MacVeigh their views on the dangers of "home rule" as viewed by the "religious minority" in Ireland whom they represent. "You are entirely at liberty to quote me," writes the Earl of Aberdeen, "as declaring to you that after years of continuous residence in Ireland, watching affairs and meeting people of every class and creed, I am profoundly impressed as to the baselessness of alarm about the consequences of home rule."

"On home rule, I have in my former messengers, especially regarding apprehensions of religious intolerance. Numerous Protestant ministers in Roman Catholic parts of Ireland support me in this view."

SCIENTIFIC STUDY OF THE DEAD SEA

German Society to Start on Expedition in October to Make Research

(International News Cable)

Berlin, Aug. 10.—In October of this year the German society for the exploration of Palestine will send an expedition to the Dead Sea to study and investigate what is regarded by marine students as the most remarkable inland waters.

The expedition which will be under the leadership of Dr. Ludwig Braub, the Berlin Royal Institute for Marine Studies, who will be accompanied by a number of scientific assistants, will start from Jaffa, and expect to spend six weeks in collecting data as to the conditions and nature of the Dead Sea. The cost of the expedition is being defrayed by Herr Oskar Tietz, a private member of the society.

CLEVER SWINDLERS VICTIMIZING MONASTERY

Young Man of Ascleto Appearance Becomes Guest of Belgian Priests

(International News Cable)

Berlin, Aug. 10.—Several monasteries and a nursery in South Germany have been nearly swindled by two persons of ascetic appearance describing themselves as the Syro-Chaldean bishop of Nazareth and his chaplain. The sham bishop received numerous offerings for masses and for good work in his diocese. He permitted himself, despite his asceticism, to be very hospitably entertained at the convent in Mendenheim, he found the cooking particularly good and remained eight days.

At length while he was staying at the Beuren Monastery, favored by the abbot, the bogus bishop aroused suspicion. The police were called in, and soon established his identity as a cattle dealer who became a deacon, and, on being discharged, a commercial traveler.

DARED TO DEFY GERMAN EMPEROR

RICHARD STRAUSS' FRAU THINKS
HE TAKES UP TOO MUCH OF HUSBAND'S TIME

Paris, Aug. 11.—If I were to award an international medal for bravery to a woman I would not hesitate a moment in giving it to Frau Richard Strauss, wife of the famous composer of "Salome" and "Elektra," for she has just had the courage to defy the kaiser. The reason for this defiance is that the kaiser could not leave her husband in peace night or day and thus interfered with his meals and sleep.

Whether it was because he did not trust his own gifts in the musical line, or because he believes in co-operation, it may not be known to my American readers that the Kaiser, who has already given to the world one musical masterpiece, the "Song of Aegir," is now composing a march, which he hopes will beat anything Richard Wagner ever conceived, and which is to be played for the first time at the wedding of his "precious little one," as he calls Princess Louise.

The kaiser, ever since he started to compose, has been continually "phoning for Richard Strauss to come to the palace and listen to his new chords and pronounce his opinion." Sometimes it is midnight when the telephone summons the composer of "Salome" to the imperial palace; again, it rings as he is about to snatch a nap.

Poor Frau Strauss is being driven crazy over it all. She worships her husband. He is, according to her, the greatest composer since Beethoven.

"Would the kaiserin alody her own husband to go without his food?" she asks.

The indignant lady's way of putting things straight is to shut off the telephone. Herr Strauss, who is a dreamer, thinks it is out of order, and has told the kaiser so.

It was the body of J. H. Dunlop, which was found in the Saskatchewan north of Edmonton on Tuesday. The unfortunate man fell from the box car at the Edmonton Lumber Company's mill.

Additional cars will probably have to accommodate the merry-makers on the eve of the picnic of the Planners and Steam Fitters, Saturday.

In a story which appeared in the Capital yesterday relative to the reduction in area of Dominion government parks in the Rocky Mountains it was stated that H. Lawson was chief warden in the Rocky Mountains. Mr. Lawson is not connected with any of the Dominion parks in the province. He is chief game warden for the province.

Citizens of Edwinton on the 6, T. P. west of Edmonton have set out a movement to get the station nearer the town than it is now and they will present a petition to the railway company on September 6. Some time ago the railway company offered each station on the line to the railway company for a townsite where the station is now standing if they would have their buildings there. The offer was refused, however, hoping to get the station nearer the river.

Mr. Macleod is in oil for pure publicity. "I tell sometimes a hundred lies a day," she says. What a beautiful accomplishment!

A FAMILY AFFAIR

A Gratiotian named Lukoshevich will come up for trial this afternoon at the mounted police station on a charge of cattle stealing. The information was laid by two constables of the mounted police who were on duty last week when a warrant was taken out for the man's arrest. Arising out of the cattle stealing case there is a further case being raised by the result of a fight between the mother of the accused and the mother of two girls who laid the information. Both cases will come up for hearing this afternoon.

Lukoshevich is a boy about 19 years old. He had been living with his grandfather on a farm near Mundare which belonged to the two girls who had purchased it out of money left them by their father who died a year ago in Austria. The boy apparently thought he was not being treated rightly and took a couple of cows to Mundare and secured a market for them. The girls came to Edmonton and laid information leading to his arrest.

CRUDE FORGER GETS TWO-YEAR TERM

FAILED TO MAKE GOOD AS FARM HAND HE TRIED HIS FINANCE AT THE FORT

Having regarded himself at Fort Saskatchewan bars, Trotter decided to return to his old employer, convinced Mr. Clegg of the error of his ways, and prove to him that in firing Trotter he had lost the best hired hand in the whole section.

Not a day passes but someone sells a piece of Edmonton real estate at a large figure, bought only a few years previous at a very small price.

In many instances this one piece of property has made more money than they have been able to save from their business or wages in years.

Are you willing to be one of these fortunate ones? The same opportunities are being offered today with a greater assurance of profit than any of these deals made in the past, for the reason that Edmonton is now sufficiently established to warrant any industry or corporation locating here.

G.T.P. Addition

G. T. P. Addition has many advantages over many of the propositions offered today, because it is favorably situated in the vicinity of what will be the largest pay-roll district in the city and near the property purchased by the city for factory sites.

This property is high and dry; the prices are very cheap.

$90 to $200 per lot

and the terms easy—$1000 cash and the balance $500 per month, with extension of time in case of sickness and a free transfer to the heir in case of death of the purchaser.
